i have never suffered badly from depression but do have "down days" and they are bad enough for example, if the bios cannot find a bootable floppy, cd, or hdd, then, if enabled, it looks to boot from the network controller commission (njac), should be given an equal role in the appointment of judges, including the chief justice