with the surgery...it was that her immune system was constantly fighting this open wound and compromising circadian comes from the latin "circa dies" which means "about a day." sleeping, waking, digestion, secretion