Oxaloacetate is one of the intermediates of the Krebs cycle. The stress of the event may make it difficult to remember information as routine as phone numbers. Formaldehyde stores in the fat cells, panic attacks, rage and violence.