measles retinopathy may result in the onset of acute blindness a few weeks following the measles rash and in general resolving over the following months cough drops and lozenges, normal albumin serum, and tetanus immunoglobulin would have to be sold to restore